

Sharing stories, finding solutions

KWP presents

Bush Medicine and Food with Wax Treasure Feathers

Amanda is a proud Aboriginal Yuin woman with Scottish and Irish heritage. She is a mother, a healer and creative small business owner who sells crystals and all things that are natural and healing. She works with totem animals when creating her jewelry pieces honoring the ancient song lines of the Yuin nations who believed in the powers of crystals feathers and bones.

In this workshop, participants will receive a kit including paint, pots, brushes, seeds (chocolate lily, native rosemary and thyme) and a potting medium to create a small native garden using bush tucker plants. Participants will learn about its uses and how to care for them.

Workshop details

When: Thursday 21st October

Time: 11.00am – 1.00pm

Registration is a must. We'll share the zoom ID on the day.

KWP workshops are free and open to all Aboriginal women

Please register by contacting our Koori Women's Place team on 9244 3333 or kwp@djirra.org.au

1800 105 303

www.djirra.org.au

 @DjirraVIC

 Djirra

 DjirraVIC