Mun-dah (red bellied snake) dreaming & jewellery making workshop

Join proud Yuin, mum, healer and creative Amanda in this deadly new workshop, learn about the Dreamtime story of Mun-dah the red bellied black snake, connect with her energy and create some beautiful jewellery in her honour to treasure and give you resilience courage and strength.

There will be individual packs sent prior to the workshop everything needed to make a set of earrings and a kangaroo leather necklace.

As always each pack will contain a crystal as a gift and thank you.

We respect and acknowledge that the animals we work with are totems to some mob. We want to reassure you that no animal was harmed for us to create in this workshop and that all animal materials are treated with respect at all times. If anyone has the red bellied black snake as their totem and doesn't wish to use her but still wants to participate please let us know so that we can give you alternatives.
