

Sharing stories, finding solutions

KWP presents

Painting With Ochre with Emma Bamblett

Emma Bamblett is proud to have connections to the Wemba Wemba, Gunditjmara, Ngadjonji and Taungurung people.

Emma has found inspiration and motivation from the arts community in Melbourne and found purpose and meaning in her artwork which represents the stories and struggles for vulnerable children, youth and families.

Aboriginal people have been using ochre in traditional paintings and ceremonies for thousands of years.

Join Emma and other Aboriginal women for a fun and creative morning creating your own art piece using Ochre
