DIY Soap Making workshop with Black Ochre

Black Ochre DIY Soap Making Workshops are a fun interactive yet relaxing experience where participants get to create their own custom soaps. These workshops are facilitated by Gunditjmara & Mutthi Mutthi woman Nolita Edwards.

This workshop is not only about making soaps but enjoying the process, turning the making of the soap into a type of art therapy bringing mob together in an urban setting for holistic healing and wellness. These workshops are about 'Reawakening our own power to heal ourselves, in our own way, in our own time'.
