

Sharing stories, finding solutions

KWP presents

Should you start a business?

Do you have an idea, a side hustle or want to strive for something new?

Join us for this session where we will be workshopping your 'personal lean canvas' and 'business lean canvas' to explore opportunities for business and entrepreneurship. Ngarrimili is a non for profit organisation working to support business and entrepreneurship amongst Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander aspiring and established business owners, creatives and entrepreneurs.

This workshop is not limited to people who have a business already or who may want to start one. You can be individuals wanting to explore deeper into any ideas you may have creatively or wanting to sit down and spend some time working on a specific idea in your personal life/work/career etc).

Workshop details

When: Friday 31st March
