

Sharing stories, finding solutions

KWP presents

Rag Dolls with Wax Treasures Feathers

Join proud Yuin, mum, healer and creative Amanda in this deadly workshop, inspired by the story of a young Aboriginal girl born in the 1800's and her doll, which had been now returned home after being lost for many decades in England.

In this workshop you will learn the skills on how to make your own rag dolls or creations which can be recycled from materials and scraps you have lying around the home and the importance of sharing stories make sure that they are never lost and always remembered.
