

Sharing stories, finding solutions

KWP presents

Let's yarn spirituality with Lee Couch

Lee Couch is a proud Gamilaraay woman from Northern NSW with kinship connections to the Western Culture through her paternal line.

Lee is nested in the nourishment of traditional knowledge and connects culturally responsive approaches that honor and empower individuals' well-being and healing. She models a decolonized framework of remember and reckon, reclaim and restore, reconnect and repair.

For more than 15 years, Lee has inspired healing (to begin) through group facilitation and individual mentoring.

Guest speaker

Joining us is Maylene Slater Burns, a proud Kamilaroi and Kuku Djungan woman dedicated to healing, music, and the advancement of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families. She is a talented singer-songwriter and the founder of Mindful Mob Wellness and Coaching, where she shares her cultural wisdom, healing practices, and expertise to promote spiritual health and overall well-being.
