

Sharing stories, finding solutions

KWP presents

Feather flower workshop with Kathy Nicholls

Kathy Nicholls, a woman of many clans from the River to her connection to the sea. Kathy has been passed down the aspects of feather flower making from her Elders – Grandmother and Mother.

Kathy works with different types of feathers and willing and happy to share her teachings with women interested to learn. Kathy sees her feather flower making as a form of way to healing.

Workshop details

When: Thursday 4th July

Time: 11.00am – 1.30pm

@ Djirra in the West!

1927-1937 Gisborne-Melton Rd, Kurunjang

Onsite parking available

KWP workshops are free and open to all Aboriginal women

Please register by contacting our Koori Women's Place team on 9244 3333 or kwp@djirra.org.au

