Organisation environment

Djirra¹ is an Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisation with over 20 years' experience accompanying Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women, and their children, on their individual journeys. We find solutions through Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women sharing their stories, journeys, and experiences. Djirra celebrates women's strength and resilience. We are committed to a future without family violence.

We deliver holistic, culturally safe, specialist family violence support, legal services and case management, alongside cultural and wellbeing workshops and programs. Our services have state-wide reach, touching every part of Victoria to meet the needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women. Self-determination is the foundation of everything we do.

Djirra amplifies the voices of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women. We advocate for system-wide change to improve access to justice, eliminate systemic violence, and strengthen women's resilience.

We are an active member of the National Family Violence Prevention and Legal Services Forum, the peak body for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who are experiencing or at risk of family violence.

Role purpose

The Aboriginal Family Violence Legal Service (AFVLS) is a program of Djirra. AFVLS provides legal and non-legal assistance and facilitates access to justice for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who have experienced family violence or sexual assault. AFVLS's legal services include advice, representation and advocacy in the areas of:

- child protection
- family violence intervention orders
- family law; and
- victims of crime assistance.

AFVLS operates a culturally safe, trauma informed, holistic and intensive client service model. Clients are assisted by Lawyers and Paralegal Support Workers to access a variety of legal, social, psychological, cultural, health and other support services to address their complex needs and issues.

Paralegal Support Workers provide wrap-around support within this model, including: emotional support; court support; direct financial support; support in interactions with police; support with access to legal aid; support accessing transport; and connecting clients with culturally safe counselling and support services to address the underlying social issues giving rise to the client's experience of family violence and associated legal issues.

¹ Djirra is the Woiwurrung word for the reed used by Wurundjeri women for basket weaving. Traditionally, when women gathered to weave, important talks took place and problems were solved. Djirra symbolises Aboriginal women today, still coming together to share stories, support each other and find solutions.

Key accountabilities

Client support

- Work collaboratively with the Lawyer to ensure clients of the organisation are supported to address their various and complex legal and support needs.
- Assess safety and support needs of individual clients and provide information and referrals to appropriate services, such as family violence, housing, counselling, health and other support agencies as needed.
- Provide support to clients as follows and as approved by the Lawyer:
 - at court and tribunal hearings;
 - when making applications for intervention orders;
 - when making reports to police;
 - at DHHS case plan meetings;
 - at other external client appointments when support and advocacy is needed.
- Assist clients to access flexible support packages, including devising safety plans and undertaking risk assessments.
- Provide support and information to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients in a culturally safe and appropriate manner.

Administration

- Under supervision of the Lawyer, provide paralegal assistance in relation to client work, including but not limited to:
 - Client intake, including (metro staff only) duty rosters for Koori Women's place;
 - Assisting lawyers with the day-to-day management of client files;
 - Assisting clients with inquiries and coordinating internal and external appointments;
 - Accurate and timely client data entry using CLASS and SHIPP databases;
 - Assisting with drafting of letters and documents;
 - Assisting with preparation of legal aid applications using ATLAS database;
 - Filing court documents, including via the Commonwealth Law Courts portal;
 - Coordinating client related document requests;
 - Preparation of briefs to barristers;
 - Assisting with legal and other required research;
 - Liaising with external service providers in relation to client matters;
- General office duties including reception duties, word processing, filing, scanning, photocopying, faxing and maintaining records of incoming and outgoing communications.

Networking, Liaison and Community Outreach

- Develop and maintain relationships with a broad range of regional stakeholders, including: Aboriginal cooperatives; Aboriginal Health Services; family and children's services; other Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisations providing support to victims of family violence and sexual assault; mainstream health, mental health, housing, alcohol and drugs, and counselling services; police, courts and legal assistance services.
- Regularly attend stakeholder meetings and events.
- Conduct regular outreach services across the region.

Community Legal Education

- In conjunction with the lawyers and other staff, assist in the development and delivery of community education workshops and publications.
- Support the implementation of community development projects.
- Support and assist Djirra's Early Intervention and Prevention programs including Sisters Day Out, Dilly Bag, and Young Luv.

Accountability

- Comply with AFVLS's Service Standards.
- Attend training as directed relevant to the support of Aboriginal victims/survivors of family violence and sexual assault.

- Attend supervision as directed.
- Undertake travel to support the work of Djirra as required.

Occupational Health and Safety

- Implement, follow and help others to follow all health and safety procedures, and initiate, implement and participate in all relevant training and complete and manage timely reporting of any hazards, injuries or incidents.
- Proactively report on opportunities for improved health and safety.

Skills and attributes

- Maintain a flexible, collegial and professional approach to working with other staff within AFVLS and Djirra;
- Maintain an ability to work both independently and as a member of various teams within the service;
- Maintain a high level of attention to detail in all activities, including record keeping, data entry and filing;
- Maintain confidentiality and demonstrate consistent ability to handle challenging situations with sensitivity, cultural appropriateness and tact.

Decision making authority

- Recognise when to involve/escalate issues to the Lawyer or Senior Lawyer.

Key interactions

- Internal: Colleagues, Lawyers, Senior Lawyers, Managing Lawyer, Legal Services Manager, Community Engagement staff.
- External: Clients and members of the Aboriginal community, Community Organisations, Government Agencies, Courts, other legal and non-legal professionals.
