APRIL 2025

Possum Skin Workshop

Join proud Trawlwoolway woman Aunty Merliyn Duff for a fun and creative day of burning possum skins. Aunty Merliyn will guide you through the process of creating your own design on the pelt, using the traditional art of burning to connect with your personal story.

Each participant will have the chance to burn designs that reflect their own journey, creating a unique and meaningful piece of art. This workshop is a special opportunity to learn from Aunty Merliyn, connect with culture, and take home a personal piece of storytelling.
