

KWP APRIL 2026 WORKSHOPS

Healing Stones Workshop

Join proud Barkindji woman Elisha Mangal for a calm, grounding workshop focused on creating healing stones for yourself or someone special.

Together, you'll take time to connect and set intentions, painting each stone with a story or design that represents healing, strength, and protection. Stones can be kept close or gifted, offering comfort and care in everyday life, while travelling, for interviews, or during times of illness.

Once complete, the stones will be glossed and gently cleansed using a cleansing stick, ready to take home as a meaningful and protective keepsake.
